THE proprietors of this Watering Place take I pleasure in tafarming their friends and nations that they have completed their arrangements for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests, and that the Hotel is now open for their reception. The effency of these waters in cases of bropey, Scrottle, Lysspelin, diseases peculiar to Fernance, and all diseases of the Skin and Klainers, is too well established to need comment. A good fland will serve the Ball-room; and the table will be supplied with the best the country affords, while the fishing in Shoal sreek and the laming in the sursounding woods present their usual attractions to visitors. Route via Memphis and Charleson
